

ZENSHINKAN DOJO YOUTH AIKIDO PROGRAM

CHILDREN'S CLASS

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

Our Children's Class is designed for students aged 7 to 12. In this program, we provide children an experience of martial arts in a cooperative, supportive, and empowering environment where they will learn self-defense and virtuous behavior through Aikido. Students learn the fundamental self-defense techniques of Aikido, while at the same time developing physically, mentally, and socially.

Students learn self-discipline, coordination, and discover their own inner strength. Students also learn to apply the principles of focus, cooperation and social responsibility in their daily lives.

The only person a child is encouraged to challenge is him/herself. Classes in the Youth Program are designed to be stimulating and fun. Aikido teaches children how to focus their emotions, be sensitive to the energy and environment around them, and take action that is appropriate for their circumstances. Aikido techniques teach children how to blend with an attack, redirect aggressive energy and seek a decisive, yet peaceful, resolution to conflict.
